

The Daily Courant.

Thursday, June 14. 1705.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated June 19.

Rome, May 30.

THE Bishop of Posnania arriv'd here the 27th Instant, in a Litter, accompanied by Abb't Merenda, Secretary Signior Spada Nuncio in Poland; he was receiv'd at the City Gate by one of Cardinal Paolucci's Gentlemen, and conducted to the Castle of St. Angelò, where at first he appear'd to be very disconsolate; but Cardinal Paolucci himself having made him a Visit, he is since very cheerful; 'tis said the Pope will personally hear what he has to say for himself.

Geneva, June 5. Advice is come, that a Party of the Duke of Savoy's Troops meeting a few days ago 4 Troops of French Dragoons of the Regiment of Chatillon making together 180 Men, which were marching from the Valley of Aoste to Crescentino by order from the Duke of Vendome; charg'd them, kill'd 40 of them on the Spot, took all the rest Prisoners of War and carried them to Turin. Those French Dragoons happen'd to be new cloath'd but a few days before.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated June 16.

Amsterdam, June 16. The Advices we have hitherto receiv'd from Vienna, have given only a general Account of the Terms of Accommodation offer'd on the Part of his Imperial Majesty to the Malecontents of Hungary; but if the Letters that came by the last Post from Paris say true, those Terms are, I. That all the Ecclesiasticks of whatever Order, shall be oblig'd to restore all the Estates belonging to Protestants, of which they are possess'd in Hungary; and shall also be forc'd to quit all the Houses they have gotten into their Hands in that Kingdom, since the Year 1655, when the deceas'd Emperor was declar'd King of Hungary. II. That all Hungarians who were turn'd out of their Employments during the last Reign, shall be restor'd to them. III. That a general Diet shall be call'd, in which all private Persons shall be allow'd to give in their Grievances in writing; and that the said Diet shall sit, till all the reasonable Satisfaction the Nation can require be given them. IV. That the Nation shall be reinstated in all their ancient Privileges. V. That every 3d Year, the Estates of the Kingdom shall meet, to treat of the publick Affairs.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated June 19.

Amsterdam, June 19. 'Tis advis'd from Vienna, that Baron Pfeffershoven, Gouverour of Buda, has sent to several Counties of Hungary, an Extract in Latin, of a Letter written to him by Count Palfi, to be communicated to the Malecontents; Passages he has extracted from Count Palfi's Letter are these following,

'I am to inform you, That his present Imperial Majesty uses his most sincere Endeavours to re-establish the happy Peace and ancient Tranquility of Hungary: When I had my Audience of Leave of him, and paid my Compliments of Condoleance and Congratulation, his Majesty spoke the following Words to me.

'You know we have always lov'd the Hungarians, and that we never occasion'd the least Injury to be done to them; indeed, we could not interpose powerfully in their Favour, because, after our Coronation in Hungary, We were oblig'd to swear, that we would not in any Manner meddle in their Affairs during the Life of his Majesty our most gracious Lord and Father of glorious Memory: But now that we have the Reins of Government in our own Hands, we declare we do most sincerely desire, to maintain sacredly all we promis'd to the Hungarians in the last Diet held at Presburg; provided they will treat with Plainness and Sincerity, and sent Deputies to us with their Demands.

'His Imperial Majesty express'd himself in the same manner to the Prince Palatin, and Cardinal Collonitz: The said Prince will by Letters make known throughout all Hungary this most Gracious Declaration of his Imperial Majesty; and the Cardinal will in particular inform the Clergy of it, to the end none may pretend Cause of Ignorance; and that those who reject it, may be forewarn'd they will repent it too late.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated June 16. &c.

Vienna, June 3. The Malecontents of Hungary having for some time forborn Hostilities, we conceiv'd great Hopes of a speedy Accommodation; but the 1st we receiv'd Letters from Buda, which advise, that a Party of them having broke into the Suburbs of that Place call'd the Rascians, had plunder'd and burnt it, and put a great many Personsto the Sword: Advice is likewise come, that 10000 Malecontents are drawn together on the Mark: Whereupon the Preparations for prosecuting the War in Hungary with greater Vigour are hasten'd, and there is a talk of reinforcing the Imperial Troops that are in that Kingdom with 30000 Men to be furnish'd by the Hereditary Provinces. Count Glockelsberg is gone Post to Hungary, with orders to draw together several Thousand Men, and to march towards Five Churches and Buda, for which Places we are under Apprehension. The Malecontents are grown very strong in Transilvania. Orders are sent to the Danish Horse in the upper Palatinar, to march through Bohemia to Hungary; the Danish Foot are to come from thence down the Danube hither. Yesterday the Heer Wyler General of the Artillery, went from hence to the Imperial Troops that are in the Island of Schut: To day General Erbeville's Baggage was sent from hence thither. Mean Time, the Secretary of Prince Esterhazy, Palatin of Hungary is gone with the Letter written to the principal Malecontents by his Master (mention'd in our former,) from Presburg to Neitra, having a Pass from Count Berezeni; at Neitra he is to take another Pass and proceed to Erla.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated June 20. &c.

Letters of the 14th of June from the upper Rhine, say, the Town of Frankfort has made a Present of 100000 Florins to the Emperor. There are some Prussian Troops in the Neighbourhood of Frankfort, as also 1 Regiment of Luxenburghers, and 3 of Wurstburg, which are to March to the Moselle. A Battalion of Hesse is to take the same Route, as are also the Troops of Munster, which are arriv'd in the Country of Hesse. Some Imperial Troops have taken Post, and are intrenching themselves in the Island of Daxhude near Fort-Lewis, whereupon the Enemy may have sent a certain number of Men with 8 Pieces of Cannon, to intrench themselves on the same Island overagainst the Imperialists, being apprehensive the Allies design to lay a Bridge there, in order to attack them behind their Lines.

From the Camp of the Imperialists at Creutznach, June 11. We have lain encamp'd here 3 Days. Yesterday we were joyn'd by the Artillery, and shall break up to Morrow, to proceed on our March to the Moselle; we expect the Prince of Baden every moment. In case his Highness do not come hither before we March, a Detachment will be left, for a Guard for him, the Enemy's Parties shewing themselves frequently among the Hills.

Letters from the Lower Rhine of the 16th of June, tell us Advice was come from the Moselle, that the Vanguard of the Imperial Army, in Number 20000 Men, commanded by the Prince of Wittenberg, in the absence of the Prince of Baden, were to arrive the 13th on the Moselle, where several thousand Men more of other Troops were expected. The Troops of the Circle of Westphalia pass'd the 16th at Coblenz, to march towards the Moselle,
